-Commencement of Criminal Proceedings-Further Particulars. MES G. BENNETT, Esq :-

The alleged defalcation of Col. McNulty, the Clerk of the House of Representatives, forms the chief subject of conversation throughout the city. All kinds of rumors were in circulation during last vening and this morning, intimating and avowing ation. He remained at a public hotel last ag, and on ascertaining this morning that a foundation. He remained at a public hotel last evening, and on ascertaining this morning that a warrant had been issued for his arrest, from Justice Morsell, of this district, he sent immediate notice to Alexander Hunter, Esq., the Marshal of the District, of the place of his location, and a desire to obey the provisions of the law, by surrendering his person. This being concluded, he engaged the services of John Hoban, Esq., as his counsel, and will remain with Deputy-marshal Woodward until to-morrow morning, at ten o'clock, when he will appear before the magistrate for examination, and also to obtain the amount of bail. The warrant was obtained on the affidavit of Mr. Taylor, of Virginia, Chairman of the Committee of Accounts, and Orville Hungerford, of New York, also of the same committee. He is charged in the warrant with embezzlement under the section of the law of 1841, which I forwarded to you yesterday.

Colonel McNully still affirms that he has not appropriated one dollar of the money, alleged to be missing, to his own use, but that he has deposited the sum of $30,000 in the hands of Dr. E. G. Woodward, of Mount Vernon, Ohio, with good securities, which will balance his accounts when received. The sum of $15,000 is alleged by him to be deposited in the Bank of America, in New York, to the credit of the Patriotic Bank of this city, for his use as Clerk. This, he says, was placed there on arrangements made to that effect by Mr. Kershaw, his accounting clerk, while in New York last week; also, that the balance, $15,000, is still in the bands of Dr. Woodward, whom he has sent after to come to this city. He also says that no money has been deposited in the hands of Thomas J. Moody, the cashier of the Savings' Institute of Columbus, Ohio; but that the sum alleged, $2,750, was paid him through that institution on his draft—$750 of the amount being his own salary, and not belonging to the contingent fund of Congress. The affidavit of Levi D. Slamm, danying the loan of $2000, will be presented before the magist

Further Movements relative to the Defalcation-Col. McNulty still in the city-No arrest nor AMES G. BENNETT, Esq. :-

The resolution that passed the House yesterday, authorizing the President to commence a criminal prosecution against C. J. McNulty, the late Clerk of the House, on the charge of embezzling the public moneys placed in his profession, was presented to President Tyler this afternoon by Mr. French, the newly elected Clerk. This mode of authorization of prosecution, is certainly a novel one, as the resolution has only passed one branch of Congress, and the charges have not been presented in the shape of an affidavit, which is constitutionally necessary before a warrant can issue. Col. McNulty is at his lodgings in this city, and will remain and enter into security for his appearance, as soon as any allegation is made under affidavit. His present securities have every confidence, that he has not appropriated a dollar of the public money to his own use, and they allege that they are prepared to enter as his sureties in any prosecution to be commenced against him. Mr. Kershaw, his accounting clerk, is at his lodgings, where he will remain to aid the late clerk in the settlement of his accounts. Thus stands affairs at present, but a few days will determine all. You may hear more tomorrow.

PEREMPTORY SALE OF REAL ESTATE

AT AUCTION.

ALL THAT VALUABLE FARM, formerly owned and occupied by Rachel McHugh, deceased, containing a straight of the village of Newburgh, will positively be sold at public auction, at the O ange Hotel, in the village of Newburgh, Ou THURSDAY, Jan. 23d, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The above Farm is inclosed on all sides, by good and substantial stoffe walls; it is surpassingly well watered; and is suitably divided into wood, meadow, pasture and plough land. Its aurface is entirely free from hills and knolls, and its soil is productive and durable, and well adapted to the cultivation of both grass and grain.

face is entirely free from hills and knolls, and its soil is productive and durable, and well adapted to the cultivation of both grass and grain.

Its form is nearly square—the boundaries straight and well defined—and a highway extends through it from one end to the other, obviating the accessity of forming lanes and alleys.

There is not a Tavern within several miles of the place: while a Church, District School, Wagon—maker's and Blacksmith's Shops, and a new and escellent Grist and Flouring Mill are all withinghalf a mile of the house.

These, with many other advantages—such as its proximity to the market, the substantial condition of its buildings, and the admirable and commanding site on which the house itself stands—cannot but reader its most desirable possession for the weathy capitalist; and a pleasant, agreeable residence for the man of rural life and occupation.

For further information concerning the property, or conditions of sale, application may be made to JOHN J. MONELL, Esq., at his office in this village; or to the subscriber, at the Orange Hotel.

N. B.—The above property will be sold wholly or divided, to suit purchers rigard, if sold in the whole, $2,500 may remain on bond and mortgage.

The following letter exhibits in a remarkable manner the great efficacy of the Saraparilla in a most severe scrofulous and rheumatic affection:

A B. & D. Sands—Resported Fairnne—In the spring of 1825 I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism, which, continuing, became chroasic and settled in my right hand, arm and leg, and for three years I was perhaps as great a sufficer as ever lived. The hip joint ulcerated in eight weeks from the commencement of the attack. The bone came out in pieces, and thave now lost all the right thigh bone, and also the use of the right leg; most of the bone in two fingers of the right hand has also decayed and been removed.

I was saized with a severe cold, which greatly increased my rheumatic sufferings. I passed many days in the most excruoisting torture, without finding any relief from any thing I used. In this tried situation I heard of your Saraparilla, and done in many cases. I procured one bottle, and found almost immediate relief. I then procured two mere, which entirely relieved me. There is an ulcerated sore on my left arm, near the shoulder, which is gradually healing, and this is sill that is left of my once formidable disease. I was also for eight years most of the time severely afflicted with a chronic distribus, which the Saraparilla entirely cured. For the sake of suffering humanity i wish these facts made public, and hope it may induce others afflicted as I have been to try the same remedy.
